

LTSU Discipline Regulations

1. Authority

These regulations are made by the Student Council of the La Trobe University Student Union Inc. (LTSU) pursuant to clause 15 of the LTSU Constitution.

2. Application

2.1 Disciplinary provisions outlined in these Regulations apply to all categories of members described in the LTSU Constitution, other than Life Members. For clarity, the Discipline Regulations may be applied to:

- 2.1.1 Members who have been elected to LTSU governing bodies (that is, governing members);
- 2.1.2 Members who have been elected to the Committees of LTSU Associated bodies;
- 2.1.3 Members who hold Executive positions on LTSU affiliated Clubs and Societies; and
- 2.1.4 Members who have applied for and been admitted to membership in accordance with the LTSU Constitution and Membership Regulation.

3. Exclusions

3.1 Disciplinary issues that arise as a result of participation in LTSU elections will be dealt with in accordance with the LTSU Election Regulations.

3.2 Disciplinary issues that involve LTSU staff will be conducted in accordance with the processes outlined in the LTSU Collective Agreement 2015, or industrial agreements which succeed that document.

4. Standards of Conduct

4.1 Standards of conduct required of the members described in rule 2 of these Regulations are described in the LTSU Code of Conduct Regulations.

4.2 The requirements of LTSU members described in the Code of Conduct Regulations apply:

- at LTSU premises, on La Trobe University campuses and beyond;
- at LTSU related activities including on and off campus LTSU events, conferences, work lunches and Christmas parties;
- inside and outside of normal LTSU and La Trobe University working hours; and
- to activity on social media and other forms of electronic media.

5. Grounds for Taking Disciplinary Action

5.1 The LTSU President and the LTSU General Manager, will discuss with the member/s concerned any alleged or apparent breaches of the Code of Conduct in the first instance, and every effort will be made to resolve issues at that level.

5.2 If the President is the subject of the alleged or apparent breaches of the Code of Conduct, then the Vice-President (or delegate from the Executive Committee) and the LTSU General Manager will undertake the process outlined in these Regulations.

5.3 Where those discussions fail to resolve an issue, the President and the General Manager may take disciplinary action against a member/s in accordance with rule 5.6.

5.4 Where the member/s is/are unsatisfied with the outcome provided by the President and the General Manager, they may elect to go before the LTSU Disciplinary Appeal Committee.

5.5 Nothing in these Regulations prevents referring misconduct through University channels as well. Serious misconduct will always be referred to University processes.

5.6 The President and General Manger may decide to:

5.6.1 Take no further action against the member; or

5.6.2 Impose an appropriate penalty which may include one or more of the following measures:

- A reprimand, and/or counselling about LTSU requirements and expectations;
- A requirement that an apology be made to those impacted by inappropriate behaviour;
- A requirement to attend specified training programs;
- Payment of costs involved in making good any loss or damage to property or equipment;
- Barring individuals from using any or all facilities and resources of LTSU;
- Withdrawal of rights to attend and participate in meetings of LTSU

governing bodies;

- In the case of governing members, members who have been elected to the Committees of LTSU Associated bodies and members who hold Executive positions on LTSU affiliated Clubs and Societies, imposition of key performance indicators (KPIs) and ongoing monitoring of performance against those KPIs;
- Suspension of membership of LTSU for a defined period;
- Permanent expulsion from membership of LTSU.

5.7 Where a penalty involves suspension of or expulsion from membership, the person/ s concerned will also be automatically removed from any offices that are conditional upon membership --- for example positions on LTSU governing bodies, and Club Executive positions.

5.8 The member may not be fined.

5.9 The suspension of membership rights or the expulsion of a member under this rule takes effect immediately after the decision is made.

6. Appeal rights

6.1 A person whose membership rights have been suspended or who has been expelled as a member of LTSU under rule 5.6 may give notice to the effect that they wish to appeal against their suspension or expulsion.

6.2 The notice must be in writing and given:

6.2.1 To the General Secretary not later than 48 hours after the decision has been made.

6.3 A disciplinary appeal meeting must be convened by the Executive as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than 10 working days, after the notice is received.

7. Disciplinary Appeal Committee

7.1 The Executive must convene a Disciplinary Appeal Committee to hear the appeal.

7.2 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall comprise the LTSU General Secretary who shall chair the Committee, and two other members of Student Council co-opted by the Executive, who were not members of the original decision making body.

7.3 Where a member of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee, including the LTSU General Secretary, is likely to be biased for or against, or have a conflict of interest in the disciplinary matter, they must stand down from the Disciplinary Appeal Committee. The remaining members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee must replace any member who stands down with an alternate member co-opted from Student Council who is unbiased in relation to the matter and was not a member of the original Disciplinary Committee.

7.4 Notice of the disciplinary appeal meeting must be given to the person who initiated the appeal and each member of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee as soon as practicable and must:

7.4.1 Specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and

7.4.2 State:

- the name of the person against whom the disciplinary action has been taken; and
- the grounds for taking that action; and
- that at the disciplinary appeal meeting the members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee present must vote on whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.

8. Disciplinary Appeal Committee Procedure

8.1 At a disciplinary appeal meeting:

8.1.1 No business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and

8.1.2 The Committee must state the grounds for suspending or expelling the member and the reasons for taking that action; and

8.1.3 The person whose membership has been suspended or who has been expelled must be given an opportunity to be heard.

8.2 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee must determine the question of whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.

8.3 All 3 members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee must be personally present at a Disciplinary Appeal meeting. A committee member may not vote by proxy at the meeting.

9. Other Procedural Matters

9.1 In any proceedings:

9.1.1 Person/s against whom the allegations are made will have the opportunity to be accompanied by a support person, other than a legal practitioner, at the meeting/s and must be notified of this in the notice of meeting;

9.1.2 Person/s against whom the allegations are made must receive notification of the outcome of the meeting/s and the key reasoning behind that decision.

9.1.3 During any hearing, the body hearing the matter may call on the advice and support of other LTSU, La Trobe University or external personnel, provided that those personnel are not legal practitioners.

9.1.4 All parties involved in the hearing of a disciplinary issue shall be required to keep the matter in strict confidence, until a resolution of the matter is determined

9.1.5 Decisions of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee are to be made on a simple majority of those committee members present and voting.

9.1.6 While disciplinary proceedings under these Regulations are being pursued, none of the parties involved in the matter may initiate the grievance procedures outlined in the LTSU Constitution.

10. Other Action

10.1 Nothing in these regulations prevents LTSU pursuing disciplinary action through external authorities where appropriate, including but not limited to criminal action, the University's General Misconduct Statute and any other relevant University policies, procedures and statutes.

These measures may be taken independently, or in conjunction with the disciplinary procedures outlined in these regulations.

11. Interpretation

11.1 Where relevant, words and phrases used in these regulations take their meaning from their definition or use in the LTSU Constitution.

11.2 The word:

13.1.1 "clause" refers to a provision in the LTSU Constitution; and

13.1.2 "rule" refers to a provision in these LTSU Discipline Regulations.

11.3 “LTSU body” refers to:

12.3.1 all committees and other bodies established under Part 9 of the LTSU Constitution, including Associated Bodies recognised by LTSU under Clause 45 of the Constitution.

12.3.2 all LTSU affiliated clubs and societies.
